

We're Ready to Play ...

Because we know that's how kids learn!

Enid Public Schools offers developmentally appropriate 4-Year-Old classes that meet the needs of every child. Highly qualified teachers, small class sizes, community collaborations and the latest educational research ... it's the best place to build a foundation for the future. EPS offers several early childhood choices for your family, and we can't wait to meet your little one!

4-Year-Old Program — All 10 Elementary School Sites OR

With innovative, hands-on learning centers, caring early childhood specialists and outstanding teacher's assistants, this program will give your child a great school beginning! All EPS 4-Year-Old programs focus on the social, academic, physical and emotional needs of children.

Enroll Tuesday, April 28 from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. at your home school.

NEW! — EPS at The Commons — 301 S. Oakwood OR

With all of the benefits of a school 4-Year-Old program, including an EPS teacher, this unique collaboration between Enid Public Schools, Smart Start and The Commons retirement center allows students to have "grandma and grandpa" buddies. It's Uncommon Education at the Commons!

Enroll Friday, April 24 from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Central Office, 500 S. Independence.

NEW! — EPS at the YWCA — 525 S. Quincy

Imagine the quality of an EPS early childhood program coupled with the quality childcare of the YWCA! Students in this program can attend the school's 4-Year-Old program onsite, and then stay in the morning or afternoon for childcare. Enroll Friday, April 24 from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. at YWCA, 525 S. Quincy. Priority given to those enrolled in YWCA childcare services.

Must be 4 years old on or before September 1, 2009. Limited space available. First come, first served unless otherwise noted. Half-day program—morning and afternoon sessions available. Students from all sites welcome to enroll at The Commons or YWCA. Please bring your child's birth certificate, social security number and immunization records to enrollment. Students who are five years old should enroll in kindergarten. For more information, please visit enidpublicschools.org or contact Chris Smith at 548-0337.
